Dear Bill:

As you know, our Committee Counsels and members of your staff have been working together in the joint DCI-SSCI review of Covert Action Reporting Procedures called for under paragraph 10 of the agreement which was executed by you and the former Chairman and Vice Chairman on June 6, 1984.

This review has resulted in the production of the enclosed document, which has formally been approved by the Committee and which we have signed. We are now transmitting it for your signature.

Bill, we believe that this document will serve a useful purpose in further illuminating the Procedures, and that it represents a positive step in the evolution of the relationship between the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Executive Branch.

Sincerely,

Dave Durenberger
Chairman

Patrick Leahy
Vice Chairman
